

THE IMPORTANCE OF QUALITY IN EDUCATION AND DEVELOPMENT OF ENTERPRENUERSHIP IN KOSOVO

Prof.Dr.Ali Bajgora

Main views

- Enterprises have the key role in the Kosovo's economic development.
- They are the main source of good opportunities for new work places in Kosovo
- Human resources with high educational and professional level, are the key of success in developing the Kosovo's enterprises
- Without the right level of educational quality of human resources, the success of these enterprises is impossible

The importance of quality in education and in development of entrepreneurship in Kosovo

- How important is the quality of developing of entrepreneurship in Kosovo?
- What are the challenges of the quality in education between the developing of entrepreneurship in Kosovo?
- What are the main recommendations for advancing the quality of education and development of entrepreneurships in Kosovo?

How important is the quality of education in development of entrepreneurship in Kosovo?

- In proportion with entrepreneurship, the quality of education doesn't mean quantity but it means quality in human resources that are professionally prepared for the labor market.
- High quality academic programs, in relation with the labor market needs, are the main key of the development of the entrepreneurship in Kosovo
- The quality of education reflects directly on the quality of entrepreneurship in labor market

What are the challenges in the quality of education in relation to the development of entrepreneurship in Kosovo?

- Unsatisfied level of programs and the quality of education in relation to social and the post-war economy in Kosovo
- Unsatisfied level of development and economic sustainability of the enterprises in Kosovo.
- The lack of a close collaboration between educational institutions and economic enterprises in Kosovo to design quality educational programs based on labor market needs.

- Slow economic and social reforms in Kosovo have a great impact on slow reforms on educational system in Kosovo
- The lack of motivation of the youth for professional programs of studies that are closer to the labor market.
- The major barriers to access the European labor market by young people and Kosovo's enterprises

- Slow development in mechanisms for quality of development on educational institutions in relation to the teaching methodology and material infrastructure
- Slow development of mechanism for career guidance considering the quality of educational programs and labor market needs
- Insufficient level of international cooperation and financial support absorption for development projects dealing with the development of quality education.

What are the recommendations for advancing the quality of education in relation to the development of entrepreneurship in Kosovo?

- The definition and adoption of quality in educational programs in cooperation with economic enterprises that are necessary for the labor market in Kosovo, the region and beyond as planned.
- Affirmation of vocational programs with the primary purpose of training young people for the labor market with particular focus on developing practical skills for the labor market.
- The best connection between the quality of education and employment according to labor market requirements.
- Improving the quality of education by providing institutional support, mobility and partnership with international institutions in favor of developing the entrepreneurship in Kosovo.

- Application of European quality standards in developing the process as well in Kosovo.
- Developing research institutes within the HEI in order of their connection with economic and social needs in Kosovo ,to increase the quality of education in relation to economic enterprises in Kosovo
- Improving the quality of teaching and advancement of new methodologies, such as practical training for students as every important component for practical training for the job market and entrepreneurship in Kosovo.

- Creating or strengthening the service for developing students career in order to orienteer them to the labor market in relation to the quality of academic programs and the needs of the labor market needs of economic enterprises in Kosovo.
- Development of IT programs in IAL in Kosovo in order to increase the quality of education as an added value is necessary for enterprises and the labor market in Kosovo and beyond.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR ATTENTION!